Foes Of Burch Favor Bliss As GOP Chairman

WASHINGTON (AP) - Republican National Chairman Dean Burch insisted today he can help build a GOP comeback, but his foes claimed the votes to oust him and to put Ray Bliss in his place.

"I seek to remain as chairman because this nation needs a two-party system," Burch said in an address prepared for the National Press Club. Only "a political miracle," he said. could have elected a Republican president in 1964. Bliss, the Ohio State GOP chairman, was silent.

But one top Republican said the forces opposing Burch have the National Committee votes to demand his ouster. This source said they have settled on Bliss as the man to succeed him. Counseling party unity and cautioning against "the dictates of radicalism in any form,' Burch said he wants and intends publican presidential nominee Barry Goldwater.

"I believe I can assist in achieving that unity, in preparing the Republican party, in satisfying the desire of the American people for a society that is great mostly because it remains free," he said.

Burch conceded the Republicans made some mistakes during the 1964 campaign. He did not say what they were.
